

Updates

April 2011 Updates

Events

Articles

Podcasts/Videos

Cal Safety

Conference:

Safety Metrics: The Big Picture

13 April 1:30pm-3pm

ASSE Region III

Annual PDC:

Safety Metrics: The Big Picture

19 April 11am-12pm

Rocky Mountain

Health & Safety

Conference:

Leadership Safety Coaching

26 April 9:45am-10:45am

10th Annual BBS

Conference:

Behavior-Based Safety

26-27 April 8:30am - 4pm

Observer Training

28 April 8:30am - 11:30am

Advanced Data Analysis with ProAct 2.7

28 April 1pm - 4pm

Advanced Cultural

& Behavioral

Tactics Workshop

28 April 8:30am - 4pm

Teaching

Supervisors to be

Safety Coaches

Train-the-Trainer

Workshop

28 April 8:30am - 4pm

Coal Prep 2011:

Sustainable Safety Cultures

3 May 4pm-5pm

Electric Power

Conference:

Achieving Safety Excellence in a Lean Environment

11 May 8am-9:30am

Safety Culture

12 May 8am-9:30am

Safety Culture: A Matter of Characteristics or Capabilities?

During World War II, the American military gained a reputation around the world for having a "can do" culture. They tended to quickly identify problems and address them with creativity, tenacity, and a lot of teamwork. This culture was seldom described by its characteristics, but it was known for its capabilities and for the results it accomplished. keep reading

Overcoming Tomorrow's Challenges: The Transformational HSE Leader

Health, Safety and Environmental (HSE) professionals face an increasing challenge - one that intensifies with each new hypercompetitive priority. It is little wonder why organizations strive to move safety from a priority to a value. To create these shared values within an organization, they must be reinforced at or near the point of decision. In principle, this always holds true. In practice, accomplishing this grows increasingly difficult. keep reading

Executive Decision: Enabling or Hindering Safety Progress

Helping people recognize hidden risk is one of the more complicated tasks I perform. Largely, this is due to hundreds of ways risk disguises itself as normal, everyday situations. Unfortunately, for executives, the further a company is on the path to sustainable safety culture excellence, the more difficult it can be to identify risk. keep reading

The Contributing Factors of Behavior-Based Safety Failures

Whether you like it, love it, or have never heard of it, behavioral safety processes have now created value and controversy for thirty years. Multiple methodologies argue for a dominant position in the marketplace resulting in confusion, closely held secret magical formulas, and strengthening an often dangerous resolve to do-it-yourself. keep reading

I Had Your Attention, Now What? Ensuring Communication Effectiveness

Communication, by nature, is hyper-competitive. Safety has information to share; as does quality, production, Human Resources, Payroll, Customer Service, etc. read the article

#176 - A Structured Approach to Coaching

Video Episode

#175 - Why We Fail to See Risk

#174 - Preparing Workers for Safety Improvement

#173 - Identifying the Right Leaders

Video Episode

#172 - Ownership in Safety: The Challenge of Increasing Headcount

#171 - Communicating Safety: Can I Get A Receipt?

#170 - Challenging, Changing Five Dangerous Safety Perceptions Part 2

#169 - The Five Most Dangerous Safety Perceptions: The Belief Barriers to Excellence Part 1